"REMEMBERING RED"

Real life is funnier than make believe! Brian Hoffman's comedic delivery is similar in style to the comedy genius, Richard (Red) Bernard Skelton. His career of impersonating Red Skelton has not only allowed him to perform in Las Vegas, but travel and entertain baby boomers all over the U.S. His ability to look, walk and sound like Red Skelton takes audiences back in time and they sometimes forget that they are not watching the "Real Red Skelton".

Join us for a fun filled afternoon finding friendships, laughter, & buffet lunch.
